

datations thereon; and they may erect a pump thereon if they think necessary.

1882, ch. 423.

52. They may purchase or condemn and hold ten acres of land for the use and benefit of said town.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 17, sec. 42.

53. No person shall permit any hogs or geese to run at large in the town; and if any hog or goose shall be found running at large therein, the bailiff, or any inhabitant of the town, may seize and impound the same; and the bailiff shall immediately give notice thereof by public advertisement; and if the owner shall not, within three days thereafter, pay said bailiff ten cents for every day of impounding any goose, and fifty cents for every day of impounding any swine, the bailiff may sell the same at public sale, and after deducting fifty cents for each goose and a dollar and a half for each hog, shall pay the same to the commissioners of the town.

Ibid. sec. 43.

54. No hog sty shall be erected, nor shall hogs be kept within one-half mile of the bounds of the town, unless the owner thereof shall actually reside on the premises where the same is erected, or where said hogs are kept; and any person offending against the provisions of this section shall forfeit the sum of two dollars for every day he shall continue said sty or keep said hogs after five days' notice to remove them by the commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 44.

55. If the owner of any dead animal shall suffer the same to remain within the limits of the town for twenty-four hours after he shall know of the death of the same, he shall forfeit two dollars.

Ibid. sec. 45.

56. If the owner of any stallion shall parade him through the streets or on the public ground in said town, or suffer him to cover within the same, he shall forfeit two dollars for each offence.