

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 17, sec. 50.

60. Any person who may deem himself aggrieved by said assessment, may appeal for relief to the said commissioners within thirty days after the return made by the assessors.

Ibid sec. 51.

61. The commissioners shall have the power annually to make abatements and transfers, and to cause a new assessment to be made, according to the provisions of the three preceding sections, whenever they shall deem it necessary.

Ibid. sec. 53.

62. The clerk and bailiff of said town, before they enter upon the duties of their respective offices, shall each make oath before the said commissioners that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of his office according to the best of his skill and judgment, without favor, partiality or prejudice; and the said commissioners may take bond with security from said bailiff for the faithful performance of the duties of his office.

1868, ch 53.

63. The bailiff shall attend the meetings of the said commissioners, and shall perform such services as they shall direct; he shall arrest and carry before some justice of the peace for Queen Anne's county resident in said town, to be dealt with as hereinbefore provided, any person found breaking the peace or disturbing the quiet and order of the town, or violating any of the ordinances made for securing the safety of the property or the lives of the inhabitants thereof; he shall have power to summon any of the inhabitants of said town to assist him in the discharge of his duties when necessary.

1878, ch. 118.

64. The commissioners shall have charge, control and management of the market-house in the town, and full power and authority to enact rules and regulations for the sale in the town, of all meats, poultry, fish, fruits, vegetables and other provisions, and to enforce all such rules and regulations by fines, penalties and forfeitures.
