P. L. L., (1860,) art 17, sec. 63.

72. He shall try the weights, scales and measures used at said market by the standards of the county, and if any be found false or untrue, shall seize the same, and after they are properly adjusted, sell them at public sale, and shall account for the proceeds of all sales under this and the preceding section, to the said commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 64. 1888, ch. 868.

73. All fines, penalties and forfeitures which may be recovered under the provisions of this sub-title of this article, relating to the town of Centreville, or any ordinance passed in pursuance thereof, may be recovered before a justice of the peace of Queen Anne's county in the name of the commissioners of Centreville, as small debts are recovered, and applied to the benefits of said town; and the commissioners of Centreville, or the justice of the peace, in case of non-payment thereof, as soon as adjudged as aforesaid, in addition to process of attachment or execution for the enforcement thereof, shall have power forthwith to commit the offender to the county jail until the payment of said fine, penalty or forfeiture so as aforesaid adjudged against him, together with all costs, unless sooner released and discharged by the order of said commissioners.

1876, ch. 230.

74. The commissioners shall annually appoint a person to be chimney sweep for the town, who shall at least once in every six months sweep all chimneys wherein wood fires are burned, and at least once in every twelve months all chimneys wherein coal fires are burned; and for every neglect or refusal of said chimney sweep to comply with the provisions of this section, he shall, upon conviction thereof before some justice of the peace of the town, pay a fine of not less than one or more than five dollars, together with the costs of prosecution, which said fines shall be collected by the bailiff and be applied to the general expenses of the commissioners.

Ibid.

75. If any person occupying any house in the town shall hinder or prevent said sweep from complying with the provisions
