

1876, ch. 201.

114. As a source of revenue, they are empowered to levy such tax upon all exhibitions, circuses, menageries and other amusements for gain, as the said commissioners shall think reasonable.

Ibid.

115. They are also empowered to hear all grievances and complaints, and they shall have the power to remit any fine or penalty imposed under any ordinance of the corporation, except in cases tried before a justice of the peace, in which case the right of appeal to the circuit court for the county shall be the proper remedy.

Ibid.

116. In case of condemnation of any land or parcel of ground, they shall in all cases be governed by the laws, rules and regulations now made and used by the county commissioners in cases of condemnation of land for opening and making roads or closing them.

Ibid.

117. The treasurer to the board of commissioners shall give bond in the sum of five hundred dollars, with two sureties, and shall pay out no moneys except upon the warrant of the president of the board of commissioners, attested by the clerk, and the seal of the corporation affixed thereon.

Ibid.

118. He shall make a full report of all moneys received and paid out by him every three months, and surrender the funds, books, vouchers and all other documents in his possession belonging or pertaining to the corporation of Church Hill, within one week after the expiration of his term as treasurer, to the commissioners or his successor, under a penalty of five dollars.

Ibid.

119. All certificates of election, appointment and oaths of commissioners and their employees, shall be recorded in the book wherein are recorded and kept the proceedings of the commissioners; also, an accurate account of moneys paid into the treas-
