

1886, ch. 103.

124. He shall be entitled to tax, as part of the plaintiffs' costs in all judgments or decrees rendered or passed in said court, the sum of five cents for each name appearing as a party to such judgment or decree, for the purpose of continuing the general index; and it shall be the duty of the clerk entering or recording said judgments and decrees, to index the same as aforesaid.

Ibid.

125. Whenever any of said judgments or decrees are satisfied, it shall be the duty of the clerk entering said satisfaction, whether on order or on return of feri facias, to note the said satisfaction on said indexes where said judgments and decrees are indexed, in a blank to be left for said purpose.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 17, sec. 71.

126. There shall be three county commissioners for Queen Anne's county.

Ibid. sec. 73.

127. They shall appoint a person well qualified, and a resident of said county, as their clerk, who, before entering upon the duties of his office, shall, before one of said commissioners, take and subscribe the following oath: "I, A. B., do swear that, as clerk to the county commissioners of Queen Anne's county, I will honestly and faithfully, to the best of my skill and judgment, execute the duties of said office, without favor, affection or prejudice, so help me God."

Ibid. sec. 74.

128. The said clerk shall also execute a bond to the State of Maryland, approved by said commissioners, in the penalty of one thousand dollars, for the true and faithful performance of the duties of his office, which bond shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for said county.

1866, ch. 136.

129. Said clerk shall receive annually, as a compensation for his services, such sum as the county commissioners may deem
