

commissioners of said county for school purposes; and any justice of the peace of said county shall issue his warrant for the arrest of offenders, upon information, under oath, of a violation of any of the four preceding sections; the right of appeal to the circuit court for Anne Arundel county being hereby given to any party convicted and fined hereunder, upon giving approved bond in double the amount of the fine imposed, within ten days from the rendition of the judgment by the justice of the peace.

1876, ch. 78.

252. The six preceding sections shall not apply to the creeks, ponds and inlets of said county, nor to Magothy river, Rhode river or West river, from the outer point of the mouth of Rhode river to their heads, which shall be and remain subject to the provisions of the code of public general laws relating to the shooting of wild fowl from sink-boxes.

1882, ch. 400. 1886, ch. 866.

253. It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot wild fowl from any booby blind or bush blind, on the waters of the Severn river, in Anne Arundel county, except upon Monday, Wednesday and Saturday, and on the waters of Magothy river in said county, except on Tuesday and Friday of each week, and on the waters of South river except on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday of each week.

Ibid.

254. Before any person shall place any booby blind or bush blind in or upon said waters and shoot therefrom, he shall first obtain a license so to do from the clerk of the circuit court for Anne Arundel county, by the payment of two dollars for the same, and a fee of fifty cents to said clerk for issuing the same; provided, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the owner of any blind properly licensed, from extending the privilege to any person to shoot from said blind upon the days specified in the preceding section.

Ibid.

255. It shall not be lawful for any person to establish a blind, after said blind has been licensed, at a point in said river nearer to said blind than three hundred yards.
