

by a fine of not more than two hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the house of correction, or the jail of Queen Anne's county, for not more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment as aforesaid, in the discretion of the court.

1888, ch. 290.

160. All prosecutions under this sub-title of this article shall be by indictment, to be found by the grand jury of Queen Anne's county; and all fines collected from this source shall be paid into the school fund of said county.

Ibid.

161. Whenever any voluntary political association or party, other than the democratic party, shall desire to hold its primary election under this sub-title of this article, its State central committee shall issue an order for said primary election in form and substance like the one required by section 148 of this sub-title of this article, and thereupon the provisions and requirements of this sub-title of this article shall apply to such political association or party as though specially named or designated therein, and to its State central committee for said county and to judges and clerks appointed by said committee.

Ibid.

162. No expenses shall be incurred by Queen Anne's county in the conduct of any election under this sub-title of this article.

FENCES.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 17, sec 77.

163. Whenever joint fences have been or may be established in said county for the mutual advantage of different owners or possessors of adjoining lands, each shall keep up in good repair his or their respective proportion thereof, in the manner following, that is to say: all post and rail or plank fences shall be at least four feet and a half high, and all worm or other fences shall be at least five feet high, the distance in every case to be computed from the ground or base of any embankment on which the same may be placed.
