

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 17, sec. 87.

182. The county commissioners may employ a blacksmith by the year, to do the necessary iron work at the said jail.

JURORS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 17, sec. 89.

183. The county commissioners shall levy annually, one year in advance, such sum of money as they may deem sufficient to defray the expenses of jurors for the ensuing year.

Ibid. sec. 90.

184. The county collector shall, immediately after the termination of every court, pay to the jurors such sums as they may severally be entitled to receive for their attendance at that court.

Ibid. sec. 91.

185. A certificate, signed by the clerk of the circuit court, expressing the number of days any juror may have attended said court and the sum due him for such attendance, including the mileage allowed him, shall be a sufficient authority to the said collector to pay the amount specified in the said certificate.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

1868, ch. 10. 1876, ch. 75. 1878, ch. 137. 1882, ch. 244. 1884, ch. 127.

186. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables in said county, to wit: for election district number one, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number two, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number three, three justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number four, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number five, two justices of the peace and one constable; for election district number six, two justices of the peace and two constables; and for election district number seven, three justices of the peace and two constables.

1864, ch. 135.

187. Whenever a justice of the peace for said county shall issue a summons for a defendant residing in a different election