

1882, ch. 400. 1886, ch. 366.

256. If any person shall violate any of the provisions of the preceding section, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace in Anne Arundel county, shall be fined a sum not less than five nor more than twenty dollars for each offence, with the costs of prosecution for the same; provided, that an additional fine of five dollars shall be imposed upon the owner of any blind who shall establish the same at a point nearer than three hundred yards from a blind already established and licensed, for each week said blind shall remain after due notice has been given to remove the same by the owner of the blind first established and licensed.

Ibid.

257. If any person shall trespass upon any blind established and licensed, by shooting at wild fowl from the same without the consent of the owner of said blind, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace for Anne Arundel county, shall pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty dollars, with the costs of prosecution, and stand committed to the county jail until said fine and costs are paid.

1882, ch. 400. 1886, ch. 366. 1886, ch. 337.

258. One-half of all fines so imposed and collected shall be paid to the informer, and the other half, together with the money arising from licenses, shall be paid to the school commissioners of said county for the benefit of the public schools thereof.

Ibid.

259. All such licenses shall begin on the first day of May, in each and every year, and continue only for one year from the date thereof, and no person shall be allowed to license more than one blind in any season; and if more than one license be so obtained by any person, the same shall be revoked by said clerk, but the money paid therefor shall not be recovered, but shall be disposed of the same as if the license was legally obtained.
