

1878, ch. 54.

260. It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot at or shoot any ducks or other wild fowl on or over the waters of West or Rhode rivers and their creeks, except from the natural shores of said West and Rhode rivers and their creeks, or from blinds placed in said waters, which said blinds shall not be within five hundred yards of each other.

1876, ch. 387.

261. It shall not be lawful for any person to shoot at or shoot any duck or other wild fowl on or over the said West and Rhode rivers and creeks, except on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays of each week.

Ibid.

262. Every person who shall be adjudged guilty of a violation of the two preceding sections, before any justice of the peace in the said county, shall for the first offence be fined the sum of five dollars, and every subsequent offence the sum of twenty dollars, and the boats, guns and other gunning apparatus of the said party so convicted shall be forfeited and sold under the direction of the justice of the peace adjudging such forfeiture; one-half of all fines so imposed and forfeitures so adjudged to go to the informer, and the other half to the school fund of said county, and all costs of such prosecution to be paid by the party convicted.

Ibid.

263. All prosecutions under the sections of this sub-title of this article shall be docketed in the name of the State of Maryland as plaintiff.
