

State fishery force, in which case the officer selling shall be paid such fees as are usual in his general business of collecting executions, and the balance shall be paid to the county commissioners, for the use of the public schools of Queen Anne's county.

1880, ch. 370.

269. Should any person resist any officer in making any arrest under the provisions of the preceding sections of this sub-title of this article, said person, upon conviction before any justice of the peace of Queen Anne's county, shall be fined not less than fifty or more than five hundred dollars, and stand committed until said fine has been paid.

Ibid.

270. Any person convicted under any of said provisions of this sub-title of this article shall have the right of appeal from the decision of said justice to the circuit court for Queen Anne's county; provided, the person so appealing shall give bond, with two sufficient securities, to be approved by the justice trying the case, in double the amount of the fine imposed, (and also of the value of the property seized in case he be a non-resident,) with conditions to prosecute such appeal with effect to the circuit court at its next session thereafter, and to pay the fine imposed, and all costs attending such proceedings, in case judgment shall be affirmed.

Ibid.

271. The waters of Queen Anne's county are hereby so construed that the middle of the channel of Chester river shall be the dividing line of Queen Anne's and Kent counties, and the middle of the channel of the Eastern bay, and that portion of Wye river that divides Queen Anne's from Talbot county, shall be the dividing line between Queen Anne's and Talbot counties, so far as they relate to this sub-title of this article.

272. It shall not be lawful for any person, at any time during the day or at night, by artificial light or otherwise, in or over the waters of the Chester river and its tributaries, within the jurisdictional limits of Queen Anne's county, to shoot at, or to shoot any water-fowl bedded in flocks upon the feeding or roosting
