

grounds of said water-fowl, or sitting, swimming, resting or feeding, singly or in numbers of two or more, there or elsewhere in, on or over said waters, from any vessel, boat, launch, canoe tug, float, or any craft whatsoever.

1886, ch 469.

273. It shall not be lawful for any person, at any time during the day or at night, by artificial light or otherwise, to shoot at, or to shoot any water-fowl flying above their feeding grounds or elsewhere, over the waters aforesaid, within the jurisdictional limits of Queen Anne's county, from any vessel, boat, launch, tug, canoe, float, or any craft whatsoever.

Ibid.

274. The provisions of the two preceding sections, and the remaining sections of this sub-title of this article, shall not apply to or prohibit the shooting of wild fowl from sink-boats as now regulated by sections 259 to 271, inclusive.

Ibid.

275. Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of sections 272 and 273, or who shall aid or abet any such person in the violation of the provisions of said sections, by furnishing a boat or other vessel, or any craft whatsoever, guns and ammunition, to be used for the purpose, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and any person so violating the provisions of said sections by shooting at, or shooting wild fowl, as aforesaid; and any person so aiding and abetting therein by furnishing boat, vessel or craft, guns and ammunition, as aforesaid, shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred and fifty dollars and not more than three hundred dollars, to be recovered by action of debt before some justice of the peace of Queen Anne's county or by indictment in the circuit court for said county.

Ibid.

276. The sheriff or any constable or any commissioned militia officer of Queen Anne's county, or any commanding officer of any one of the oyster police sloops or steamers, either upon view or information derived from any other person, of a violation of any
