

ing commissioners shall not cease; but the power of the inhabitants of said village in that respect shall continue the same as though such an election had been made; and the commissioners for the time being shall continue and remain in office until such election shall be held.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 18, sec. 45.

66. The limits of the village of Leonardtown shall be as established, marked and bounded by the commissioners, and recorded among their proceedings.

Ibid. sec. 46.

67. The said commissioners may appoint a clerk and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation as they may think proper; and all ordinances passed by them shall be entered by their clerk in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, and shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested; and copies of all ordinances shall be published or put up in the most public places of said village.

Ibid. sec. 47.

68. They may levy and collect taxes not exceeding in any one year fifteen cents in the hundred dollars on the assessable property of said village; and for the purpose of making said levy they shall, once in every two years, or oftener if they think proper, appoint an assessor, who shall, under oath, value, appraise and assess the property in said village.

Ibid. sec. 48.

69. If any owner of such property shall conceive himself aggrieved by the assessment made by said assessor, he may appeal to the said president and commissioners, who may make such deduction from such assessment as to them shall seem just and proper.

1878, ch. 227.

70. The said commissioners may pass all by-laws and ordinances necessary to give effect and operation to all the powers vested in them for breach of said by-laws and ordinances; and any justice of the peace residing within the town may take cogni-
