

zance of all violations of said by-laws or ordinances, and upon information may cause all persons offending against them to be brought before him for trial, and may fine the party, if convicted, not exceeding ten dollars, and in default of payment of said fine and costs may commit the offender to the county jail for a term not exceeding twenty days; but any person so convicted may appeal from the judgment of the justice of the peace to the circuit court for St. Mary's county; provided, however, he shall, within five days after such judgment, enter bond with good security, in the penalty of twenty dollars, to prosecute said appeal with effect.

1878, ch. 227.

71. The party authorized by said commissioners to collect taxes may enforce the payment of the same in the same manner as collectors of State and county taxes.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 18, sec. 51.

72. The said commissioners may make all necessary regulations to secure property against fire, promote health and conduce to the general welfare and prosperity of the said village.

Ibid. sec. 52.

73. They may annually appoint an active, discreet person to be bailiff and collector within the limits of said village; and the said bailiff, before proceeding to the execution of his said office, shall take an oath, to be administered by a justice of the peace for said county, that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties required of him as bailiff and collector, within the limits of said village, according to the best of his skill and judgment; and he shall give bond in the same manner and with the same penalty that the several constables of said county are required by law to do.

Ibid. sec. 53.

74. He shall attend the meetings of the commissioners whenever he shall be requested, and shall perform such services as shall from time to time be directed by them.

Ibid. sec. 54.

75. They may appoint a treasurer for said corporation, who shall give bond to said corporation, with security, to be approved