

1886, ch. 300.

88. Any person violating the provisions of the preceding section shall be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, and be sentenced to the house of correction for not less than six months for each and every offence.

Ibid.

89. On information made under oath, of any violation of the provisions of section 87, to any justice of the peace for St. Mary's county, he shall forthwith issue his warrant to the sheriff, or any constable of said county, requiring said officer to proceed forthwith to arrest the party alleged to have been engaged in the violation of said section, and bring him before said justice at once for trial, and upon conviction, the offender shall be fined and punished as required by the preceding section.

Ibid

90. The said justice of the peace shall either give the case an immediate hearing, or at the instance of the party shall appoint some early day within the next five days thereafter, to hear the case; the party charged with violation of section 87 giving such good and sufficient security as said justice shall require for his appearance; and any person feeling himself aggrieved by any conviction or judgment of said justice, shall have the right to appeal to the circuit court for St. Mary's county, which shall hear and determine the same as other cases on appeal.

Ibid.

91. It shall not be lawful for any person not a citizen of St. Mary's county to take or catch oysters with tongs or any other instrument in any of the tributaries of the Potomac river adjacent to the shores of St. Mary's county, without a license; and every applicant for such license to use any canoe or other boat in catching oysters with rakes or tongs, shall be required to make oath or affirmation before the clerk of the circuit court, or before some justice of the peace for St. Mary's county, upon whose certificate of the taking of such oath or affirmation, the said clerk of the court shall issue such license, stating that the applicant for the license has been a resident and citizen of St. Mary's county for
