

WILD FOWL.

1880, ch. 176.

116. It shall not be lawful for any persons, not actual residents of St. Mary's, Prince George's, Charles, Anne Arundel, and Calvert counties, to shoot or trap upon the waters of the Patuxent river, its tributaries, or the marshes bordering upon the same, any goose, duck, snipe, ortolan or other wild fowl.

Ibid.

117. Any person who may be found violating the provisions of the preceding section, shall, upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace of the county wherein the offence was committed, be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, for the first offence, and not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and any subsequent offence; and the boat, gun, ammunition, and all other property found in the possession or use of such person at the time of the arrest, shall be held until such fine is paid, one-half of said fine to go to the informer, and the other half to the school fund of the county in which the offence shall be committed.

1876, ch. 401.

118. It shall be lawful for any bona fide citizen of St. Mary's and Charles counties, to shoot at, or shoot any water-fowl from any vessel, boat, float, canoe, or any craft of any kind whatever, in the waters of the Wicomico and its tributaries in St. Mary's and Charles counties.
