

said farm shall be insufficient for the maintenance of the inmates of said almshouse, the county commissioners shall annually levy such sum in addition thereto as shall be necessary.

* P. L. L., (1860,) art 19, sec. 15.

18. All meetings of the said trustees shall be at the almshouse.

Ibid. sec. 16.

19. Under the penalty of fifty dollars each, they shall annually make out and render to the county commissioners at their first meeting in the month of April a statement of their accounts, with the general condition of the farm, the number of persons in their employ, and the compensation of each, the amount of produce and expenditures, the probable surplus, the deficiency after payment of expenses, the number of inmates, the number capable of labor for the ensuing year, and their general condition, which accounts shall be settled by the county commissioners before making a new appointment of trustees.

Ibid. sec. 17.

20. No trustee shall be directly or indirectly concerned in furnishing any article for the use of the almshouse, under the penalty of five hundred dollars, to be recovered by suit in the circuit court for said county in the name of the State, one-half to the use of the informer and the other half for the use of the county.

Ibid. sec. 21.

21. Upon complaint made to any justice of the peace for said county that any person from his disorderly conduct gives disturbance to a neighborhood and is likely to become chargeable to the county, the said justice, if upon hearing the party he shall judge the complaint to be well founded, may commit such disorderly person to the almshouse for any time not exceeding three months, unless he shall find security, at the discretion of the justice, in any sum not exceeding fifty dollars, for his good behavior during the space of six months.

Ibid. sec. 22.

22. Upon complaint and due proof made to any trustee that any person in the said almshouse has behaved in a disorderly
