

and if the plaintiff shall be unable to pay them, they shall be paid by the attorney who brought or prosecuted the suit, unless the plaintiff shall give security for them, to be approved by the court.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 19, sec. 28.

28. Each trustee of the poor, for every day he shall serve in the discharge of his duties, shall receive the sum of two dollars.

APPRENTICES.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 19, sec. 29.

29. Any one justice of the peace of said county may bind out apprentices, in the same manner and under the same restrictions prescribed by the code of public general laws.

Ibid. sec. 34.

Ibid. sec. 35.

31. If in their judgment the interest of the apprentice requires it, either on account of improper treatment or failure or neglect on the part of the hirer to give proper instruction to such apprentice in his trade or occupation, the orphans' court shall order the hirer to return said apprentice to his master, and may order such sum to be paid by the master to the hirer as they may think just.

BIRDS AND GAME.

1874, ch. 508.

32. No person shall shoot, trap, or in any manner catch or kill, any partridge within the limits of Somerset county, between the first day of February and the first day of November in each year.

Ibid.

33. Any person violating the preceding section shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered before a justice of the peace for said county, and to be applied to the public school fund of said county.
