

1874, ch. 109.

44. It shall be lawful for him to administer the oaths, and take the probates of all public accounts presented to said commissioners for allowance, in the same manner, and to the same effect and extent as probates are now made before justices of the peace.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 19, sec. 45.

45. He shall be entitled to twenty-five cents each for making out and delivering to the sheriff of said county, certificates of the appointment of trustees of the poor.

Ibid. sec. 43.

46. The county commissioners may issue a summons directed to the sheriff of said county, for any person in said county to appear before them and testify in any matter of which they may require information; and the sheriff shall execute and return such summons according to its tenor.

Ibid. sec. 44.

47. The clerk of the circuit court shall, annually, on or before the first Monday in April, furnish to and lay before said commissioners, copies of all such lists, accounts, papers and documents as may be useful and necessary to them in ascertaining the county charges, according to the directions he may from time to time receive from them; and on failure or refusal to comply herewith when required by said commissioners, or their clerk by their order, he shall forfeit to them, for the use of the county the sum of one hundred dollars, to be recovered by indictment in the circuit court for said county.

1883, ch. 153.

48. Whenever they shall elect or designate one of their number as treasurer, it shall be the duty of said treasurer, before assuming any of the duties of his said office, to present his bond to the State of Maryland, in the penalty of at least ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the faithful performance of all the duties imposed upon him as said treasurer, according to law, which said bond shall be approved by the clerk of the circuit court for Somerset county, and when so approved shall be filed with and recorded among the land records of said county.
