

anchoring in the channel or passway, or from any other cause; for the keeping of wharves in repair, so as to prevent their injuring the harbor; and for preventing vessels from casting filth or ballast into the same; and to prevent filth, earth, shells or soil from being thrown from the wharves or land or houses, into said harbor, so as to fill up the same, or obstruct the navigation thereof; and they may impose fines for the breach of any ordinances passed under this section, not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offence.

1886, ch. 506.

67. They may confer on their bailiff or other person, all such powers and authority as may be necessary to execute and carry into effect the provisions of the preceding section.

Ibid.

68. In case the county commissioners shall levy for the use of the commissioners of said town any amount annually, to reimburse said town commissioners for keeping up and repairing the county roads within the limits of said town, the amount thus levied and paid is hereby pledged and set apart for the purpose of creating a sinking fund for the payment of the interest and principal of the bonds or certificates of debts authorized to be issued under section 93.

Ibid.

69. Said commissioners may cause an assessment to be made from time to time, from the books of the county commissioners, by some person appointed by them, of the property, real and personal, in the town; and whenever they may deem it necessary for any purpose connected with the government, regulation and improvement of the town, they may levy upon the property assessed such tax, not exceeding in any one year fifty cents in each one hundred dollars of such assessment, as they may deem necessary, but no assessment for town purposes shall at any time be higher than the county assessment of the same property for county purposes.

Ibid.

70. Every assessor, before proceeding to act, shall make oath before the president of the board of town commissioners that he