

will make and return a true valuation of property as required by the preceding section, and a certificate of such oath shall be preserved in the minute book of the commissioners; the president shall give two weeks' notice in one of the county papers, of any general assessment, with the names of the assessors.

1886, ch. 506.

71. The town commissioners shall have, annually, three successive sittings at least thirty days before the annual levy, after notice given of such sitting for at least two weeks, and shall hear evidence under oath to be administered by the president of the board, or in his absence by one of the other commissioners, tending to show any inequality or omission in the assessment, in order that such town commissioners may report every such irregularity or omission in the assessment, to the county commissioners, to the end that the same may be corrected according to law.

Ibid.

72. It shall be the duty of each town commissioner to report to the board any property liable to assessment which is not upon the assessment books of the county; and it shall be the duty of the bailiff to report any such property which may have been omitted or may not be on the assessment book of the county; and said board shall report all such unassessed property to the county commissioners in order that the same may be assessed according to law.

Ibid.

73. Said commissioners are authorized to exempt plant used in manufacturing, or manufacturing establishments, from taxation for town purposes for the period of five years.

Ibid.

74. Whenever they shall levy a tax for the corporate purposes of said town, they shall make out an alphabetical list of the persons chargeable therewith, with the sums payable by each annexed, and shall also annex thereto a warrant to the bailiff to collect the said tax; and the bailiff, within thirty days after receiving such warrants and list, shall deliver to each person therein named an account of the taxes payable by such person, and unless the said
