

at all their meetings, and in his absence they shall appoint a temporary chairman.

1886, ch. 506.

90. The governor is authorized and empowered to appoint one or more justices of the peace for Crisfield district, to reside in the lower part of the said town of Crisfield.

Ibid.

91. Said town commissioners, as judges of election, may meet on the Wednesday preceding the day of election, as a board of registration, from the hour of one P. M. to five P. M., to register the qualified voters of the town.

Ibid.

92. It shall not be lawful for the keeper of any hotel, tavern, store, drinking establishment or any other place where liquors are sold, or for any person, directly or indirectly, to sell, barter or give or dispose of any spirituous or fermented liquors, ale or beer, or intoxicating drink of any kind, on the day of any election to be held in said town; any person violating or assisting in violating the provisions of this section, shall, upon conviction before a justice of the peace of said town, be fined a sum not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars for each and every offence; said fines to go to the town commissioners for town expenses.

Ibid.

93. Said commissioners are authorized, in their discretion, to issue bonds or certificates of indebtedness to an amount not to exceed five thousand dollars, of the denomination of fifty dollars or any multiple of that sum, of such form as the said commissioners may prescribe, bearing the lowest rate of interest, not exceeding six per centum per annum, at which said commissioners shall be enabled to sell or dispose of the said bonds; the interest thereon to be payable semi-annually on the first days of January and July in each year; said bonds shall be divided into three classes, A, B and C, respectively; class A shall be redeemable after fifteen years from the date of their issue; class B after ten years, and class C after five years; said bonds shall be exempt from State, county and town taxation, and shall not be disposed of until bids therefor have been duly advertised.
