

which case said sale shall be set aside by said court, and another sale at once, by said court, shall be ordered to take place within thirty days from said date, unless said person shall pay said taxes and all interest thereon, including the cost of said proceeding directing said sale and printing the notices of delinquency, as aforesaid; and the collector's deed, without further proceedings, except as above stated, shall be conclusive against delinquent and all claiming under, by and through him, and against incumbrances; provided, said deed and plat are filed for record within six months; and in case delinquent's land is indivisible, the surveyor and appraisers shall report the fact, with the appraised value of the same at cash value, and the court shall order the sale of the same in same manner, and the collector's deed shall have same effect; provided, the real estate sells at such sale for one-half of its appraised value; and the surplus in either case shall be paid over to the person entitled thereto.

Ibid.

225. The bond of any collector failing to comply with the preceding sections of this sub-title of this article shall be put in suit by the county commissioners at the January term of the circuit court for Somerset county next after the said first day of December, unless said collector shall show a good and sufficient reason for a postponement of such action, but such postponement shall not be for a longer period than one term of said court.

Ibid.

226. All documents, books and papers belonging to the office of any collector, are hereby declared to be the property of Somerset county, and at all times shall be subject to the examination of the county commissioners.

ROADS.

1867, ch. 290. 1868, ch. 402. 1888, ch. 96.

227. The county commissioners of Somerset county shall appoint one supervisor of roads for each of the election districts of the said county, who shall hold his office for two years, or until his successor is duly appointed and qualified, and shall be subject to removal by the said commissioners for incompetency, wilful neglect of duty or misdemeanor in office.