

victuals, the sum of thirty cents per head per day; and the county commissioners shall in no case allow a greater compensation.

1878, ch. 254.

240. He may be allowed for the removal of one convict to the penitentiary the sum of thirty dollars, and for every additional prisoner convicted at the same term of court and sentenced to the penitentiary he may be allowed additional compensation not exceeding ten dollars; and said compensation shall include all expenses incident to the removal of said convict; but nothing herein contained is to interfere with any order of the court requiring the sheriff to remove a prisoner at any other time.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 19, sec. 200.

241. He shall be entitled to fifty cents for the delivery of each certificate of appointment of trustees of the poor.

TERRAPINS.

1874, ch. 189.

242. No person shall hunt, catch, trap, capture, take, kill or destroy, in any manner, within the limits of Somerset county, any terrapins or terrapin eggs, during the months of May, June, July or August, in any year.

Ibid.

243. All persons hunting, catching, trapping, capturing, taking, killing or destroying, in any manner, terrapins or terrapin eggs, during the months of May, June, July or August, in any year, contrary to the provisions of the preceding section, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace of said county, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty-five dollars; one-half thereof to the informer and the other half to the school fund for Somerset county.

Ibid.

244. The possession by any person of any terrapins or terrapin eggs, during the time forbidden in section 242, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of said section.
