

TRESPASS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 19, sec. 201.

245. If any person shall cut down, or cause or induce any person to cut down, any tree or timber of a size not less than those commonly used for hoop poles, with intent to steal the same, or any part thereof, within the limits of said county, he, his aiders and abettors, having knowledge of such intent to steal, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall be sentenced to such punishment as is or may be prescribed by law for feloniously stealing goods or chattels to the value of the tree, which shall be cut down as aforesaid, and of the injury thereby occasioned.

Ibid. sec. 202.

246. Any person who shall advisedly and maliciously, with the intent to injure the owner of any land, house or building in said county, cut down any tree, or cut down, break, dig or pull up, or in any manner destroy or injure any growing grain, shrubs, herbs, roots, vines or vegetables, or shall break, cut, pull off, destroy or injure any part of any house or other building, or of any wall or fence, or any ornament or other valuable article attached to any house or other building, wall or fence, in said county, shall, on conviction thereof, be adjudged guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, in the discretion of the court.

WILD FOWL.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 19, sec. 203.

247. It shall not be lawful for any person, by day or night, to navigate or paddle any open skiff, canoe or open boat of any description, on board of which may be any offensive weapon, gun, musket, fowling-piece or pistol, within the region usually known as included from Hearn's strait, in Somerset county, to the upper side of Holland's straits, within fifty yards of any blind for shooting fowl, with intent to shoot or molest any wild fowl within the region aforesaid.

Ibid. sec. 204.

248. Every person offending against the provisions of the preceding section shall be subject to a penalty of ten dollars, to be
