

- running at large to be destroyed; bailiff's fee; licensed dogs to be muzzled when required by proclamation; fine for violating license law; penalty for default of payment, right of jury trial; removal of dogs disturbing the peace; fine for neglect.
76. Disposition of the fines; tax on billiard tables
77. Market days; what articles of food may be sold without taking them to market.
78. Penalty for buying at any other place, victuals or provisions sold in market, when.
79. Penalty for selling except in market.
80. Penalty for butchering in market.
81. Penalty for putting horse, mare or gelding into or under market-house.
82. Duties of the clerk of the market.
83. Stalls and shambles may be rented; rents to be applied to repair and support of market houses.
84. Recovery of rents; weighers of hay and corders of wood.
85. Vacancy, how filled.
86. Oath of weigher of hay and corder of wood.
87. Fire-wood to be corded, fee of corder, to be paid equally by buyer and seller.
88. Sale of hay, fee of weigher, to be paid equally by buyer and seller.
89. Weigher of hay and corder of wood may not buy hay or wood, except for their own consumption; penalty.
90. Penalty for delay or refusal to weigh or cord.
91. Penalty for refusal to have weighed or corded.
92. Geese or swine (except estrays) going at large, to be seized; bailiff's fees; penalty for wilfully allowing geese or swine to go at large.
93. Recovery of fines, punishment for default; penalty for disturbing the peace; fines and penalties, to whom paid, commissioners to publish itemized statement of revenues and expenditures.
- 94-95. Tax of ten cents on a hundred dollars for redemption of what bonds.
96. Account of bonds to be kept.
97. Tax of five cents on every hundred dollars to furnish the town with water works.
- Election Districts.
98. Number of
99. To be divided into election precincts.
100. Registration of voters
101. County commissioners to appoint judges of election, their duty and compensation
- Fences.
102. Joint owners of, to keep in repair; height of post, rail and plank; height of worm and other
103. Party aggrieved to repair, when; lien on land of party refusing; proceeding to be commenced within two years.
104. Aggrieved party may discontinue fence upon three months' notice, when; in other cases twelve months' notice to be given.
- Fish.
105. Catching, in waters of Choptank; permission to be obtained from land owners; meshes to be five inches square.