

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec 51

26. He shall promptly and regularly index in the general index of his office, bills of sale, mortgages of personal property and other conveyances, beside such as relate to land.

Ibid. sec. 52.

27. Each book of the general alphabetical index of the records of his office shall embrace the period of at least ten years for every letter to which such book may be appropriated.

Ibid. sec. 53.

28. Such index shall be under the supervision of the judges of said court, and besides being both in the name of each and all of the grantors, and each and all of the grantees, and exhibiting the page and record of the several conveyances, shall give such designation of the land or property conveyed as the conveyances may furnish.

Ibid. sec. 54.

29. The said clerk shall be entitled to charge and receive, in addition to the amount chargeable for recording such conveyances or writings, twenty cents for the entry of each in said index.

1868, ch. 129.

30. It shall be the duty of said clerk to enter in a general index all judgments obtained on the day on which said judgments are rendered, for which service he shall be allowed the same compensation as is now allowed for similar services, to be paid for by the parties to the suit, respectively, as other costs are now paid.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec. 63. 1872, ch. 371.

31. There shall be three county commissioners for Baltimore county. They shall each receive an annual salary of one thousand dollars, including mileage, payable monthly by the treasurer of said county; and they are required to meet for the transaction of the public business at their office in the court-house at Towson, on Tuesdays and Wednesdays of each week, and daily from the first Tuesday in March in each year until the annual levy is made.
