

Swine at Large in District Number Five.

204. Hogs prohibited from going at large, not to apply to what public roads.
205. Owner to pay fine, fine to be collected, how.
206. Owners to have fair hearing
207. Disposition of fines specified in section 205.
208. Owners employing means to prevent trespass, not to be fined.
209. Hogs allowed on public roads, being driven from point to point under guard
210. Fine for aiding hogs to trespass, disposition of fines.

Trappe.

211. Corporate powers of.
212. Bounds and limits of.
213. Annual election of commissioners of, notice of election
214. Election prevented, new notice to be given.
215. Eligibility of voters and commissioners
216. Quorum.
217. Vacancy, how filled.
218. Appointment of clerk; his oath.
219. President of board of commissioners; his right to vote, oath of commissioners.
220. Appointment of bailiff and other officers, their duty and compensation; clerk and officers to give bond.
221. Clerk to give a full minute of proceedings.

222. Duty of bailiff.
223. Property subject to taxation.
224. Resident and non-resident property holders to be assessed; notice of appeals.
225. Owner of property to value under oath; witnesses may be summoned
226. Owner refusing or neglecting to appear, commissioners may assess
227. Tax for corporate purposes not to exceed twenty-five cents on every hundred dollars, bailiff to collect taxes.
228. Notice of meetings
229. Commissioners to make ordinances and by-laws for government of; fines not to exceed fifty dollars.
230. Drainage and street improvements
231. Fine for disturbing the peace; punishment in default of payment.

Wild Fowl.

232. Not to be shot from sink-boxes, waters to be three hundred yards wide.
233. Not to be shot by artificial light; not to be trapped.
234. Fine for violating sections 232 and 233, disposition of fines; fee of officer making arrest.

Witnesses.

235. Per diem of, mileage of.
236. Clerk to report list of.

ALMSHOUSE.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 20, sec. 1.

1. The trustees of the poor for Talbot county are a body politic, with power to sue and be sued, by the name of "The trustees of the poor for Talbot county," and by that name they may re-