34. He is empowered to administer an oath or affirmation to any account, to any person presenting a claim to the commissioners against the county, but he shall not administer such oath or affirmation in any other place than in the office; nor shall he be allowed any fee for said service.

1880, ch. 195.

35. The county commissioners, in each and every year, shall levy upon the assessable property in Talbot county, such sum of money as may be necessary to pay the interest on the outstanding bonds issued by them under the provisions of the act of 1880, chapter 195, as the same shall fall due, and also such further and additional sum as may be required to gradually retire and redeem such bonds, until they shall all have been redeemed.

1884, ch. 94.

36. They are authorized and empowered to lease or rent the privilege of building wharves at or upon any of the public lands belonging to said county, to any person, firm or body corporate or politic of this State, under such terms, regulations and limitations as they may deem proper.

Ibid.

37. The person, firm, body corporate or politic, to whom they may lease or rent the privilege of building wharves as aforesaid, shall have full power and authority to charge and collect from all vessels of every description whatsoever, using said wharves, the same reasonable tolls or wharfage that are now sanctioned by law or usage in this State, to be collected in the same manner as other small debts are recoverable.

CRIER.

1872, ch. 421.

38. The crier of the circuit court for Talbot county shall be entitled to and receive a per diem of five dollars for each and every day he shall be employed as such, which shall be in full and in lieu of all other allowances; and the county commissioners
