

count of his tax; and unless the same be paid to the collector within thirty days after such account shall be delivered, the collector, may seize and sell the property assessed; or if the same be goods and chattels, and cannot be found or conveniently sold, may seize and sell any other of the goods and chattels, lands or tenements of the person so refusing or neglecting to pay; and the collector shall account with the commissioners for the amount of the said assessment list, and all other sums of money collected by him under their order, at or before the end of three months from his receipt of the list of assessments.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 20, sec. 52.

66. The collector shall assess and value any assessable property that he may find within the limits of the town unassessed by the assessor at its worth in ready money, and collect the amount of tax thereon, as if the same were inserted in the assessment list aforesaid, and shall account for the same as directed in the preceding section.

Ibid. sec. 53.

67. The said commissioners shall, annually, on the first Monday in May, or within ten days thereafter, appoint a treasurer, who, before entering upon the duties of his office shall give bond to the commissioners, with one good security, in such sum as they shall require, with condition that he shall well and faithfully execute the office of treasurer of the board of commissioners of the town of Easton, and perform the duties required of him by law and the orders and ordinances of the said commissioners, and well and truly account to them, without default or delay, when and as often as he shall be required, for all sums of money paid into his hands by them, or by their order, or by any of their officers.

Ibid. sec. 54.

68. The said treasurer shall keep an account of all money that shall be received and paid away by him as treasurer, and the said account shall be at all times open to the inspection of the commissioners, or of any other person interested therein.

Ibid. sec. 55.

69. The said commissioners shall also, on the first Monday in May, annually, or within ten days thereafter, appoint a bailiff, a
