

1880, ch. 841.

38. They may bid at any sale of real estate for State or county taxes due thereon and costs; and in case the same shall be purchased by them at said sale, on the final ratification of said sale a deed shall be made by the collector of taxes for Baltimore county to them, and they shall hold the same for the use of the county.

Ibid.

39. In case said property shall not be redeemed, they shall make public sale of said real estate to the highest bidder, after due advertisement in one or more of the newspapers printed in said county, when it shall seem best to them so to do; and the proceeds of such sale shall be received by the treasurer of the county, who shall be authorized, on the full payment of the purchase money, and not before, to execute a good and sufficient deed to the purchaser; and the money arising from such sale shall be accounted for by the said treasurer as other public money now is or may hereafter be accounted for according to law.

COUNTY TREASURER.

1876, ch. 179.

40. At each general election held in Baltimore county, the legal voters thereof shall elect by ballot, a treasurer, whose duty it shall be to receive all monies which may be due the said county and pay all claims against the same.

1878, ch. 494.

41. The treasurer of Baltimore county shall be the collector of all State and county taxes for said county which may be levied by the county commissioners; before entering upon the duties of his office he shall take an oath before a judge of the circuit court for said county, faithfully to perform the duties of the same; he shall execute to the State of Maryland such bond as is now or may hereafter be required by law, as the collector of State taxes, in the penal sum of thirty thousand dollars, with three or more sureties, to be approved by the county commissioners; and he shall execute to the said State, for the use of the county commissioners of Baltimore county, a bond in the penal sum of forty thousand dollars, with at least three sureties to be
