

for every day which shall elapse until such dog or bitch be removed as aforesaid; all fines recovered under said section shall be paid to the commissioners of Easton.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 20, sec 63.

76. The said commissioners may also levy an annual tax of fifty dollars on every person keeping a billiard table in said town.

Ibid sec 64

Ibid sec 65.

78. If any person shall buy any victuals or provisions of any person in said town, either upon the stated market days or on any other days during market hours, at any other place than the market-house, he shall forfeit the sum of five dollars.

Ibid. sec. 67.

79. If any person shall sell any articles of victuals which he may bring or send to the said town, or within two miles thereof, for sale, except the articles hereinbefore excepted, either upon the stated market days or on any other days during market hours, at any other place than the said market-house, he shall forfeit the sum of two dollars and fifty cents.

Ibid sec 68.

80. If any person shall butcher any kind of cattle, sheep or hogs in or under the market-house in said town, he shall forfeit the sum of two dollars and fifty cents.
