

any hay or firewood on the way or brought to the said town for sale, except for the use and consumption of himself and cattle, under the penalty of seventy-five cents for every cord of firewood and four dollars for every ton of hay so purchased, dealt or bartered for.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 20, sec. 78.

90. If any person appointed to weigh hay and cord firewood, shall refuse or delay to weigh the hay or cord the wood which he shall be required to weigh or cord, either by the buyer or seller, he shall forfeit the sum of one dollar and fifty cents.

Ibid. sec. 79.

91. If any person having brought fire-wood or hay to said town for sale, and having sold the same, shall afterwards refuse to have such wood corded, packed and measured, or such hay to be unpacked and weighed, by the persons appointed for that purpose, the same being required to be done by the purchaser, he shall forfeit the sum of one dollar and a half.

Ibid. sec. 80.

92. No person shall keep any geese or swine within the said town, except in pens or other enclosures, and if any geese or swine shall be found going at large, (unless they be estrays belonging to any person not residing within the distance of two miles therefrom,) the bailiff of the town may distrain and seize and secure them in the common pound, and they shall be forfeited for the benefit of the town, and sold by the bailiff to the highest bidder, and the proceeds, except fifteen cents for every goose and thirty cents for every swine, which shall be retained by the bailiff for his trouble, shall be accounted for and paid to the said commissioners; and any person who shall keep any geese or swine, (except in pens or enclosures,) or shall wilfully suffer them to go at large within said town, shall forfeit the sum of seventy-five cents for every goose, and two dollars for every hog so kept or going at large.

93. All fines, penalties and forfeitures herein imposed for the violation of the charter of the town of Easton, or which may be
