

approved by them, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as collector of county taxes; the said treasurer shall receive as compensation for his services as collector of both State and county taxes, the annual sum of three thousand dollars, to be paid to him quarterly.

1878, ch. 494.

42. In case the person so elected shall fail to execute the bonds required in the preceding section, within thirty days after his election to the office, or in the event of the treasurer's removal from the county, death or resignation, the county commissioners shall declare the said office vacant, and at once proceed to fill the same by the appointment of a suitable person for the remainder of the term, who shall, within such time as the commissioners may direct, qualify and bond as directed in the preceding section.

1876, ch. 179.

43. The treasurer shall enter in books kept for that purpose, accounts of all taxes to be collected by him, with the names of the owners of the property so taxed, the particulars thereof and the rate and amount due on the same, together with all other taxable property, and the rate and amounts due on the same, and shall place thereon all credits, whether for money received, transfers, insolvencies, discounts or abatements; and it shall be the further duty of said treasurer to enter alphabetically on his ledger the entire account of each taxpayer in one place, so the whole may be seen and examined by the several persons to whom the property is assessed.

1886, ch. 242.

44. He shall appoint such clerks as may be found necessary to the proper discharge of the duties of his office, and shall be allowed for such clerks' hire the sum of two thousand dollars per annum.

1876, ch. 179.

45. It shall be the duty of the treasurer, as soon as the annual tax levy is made, to give public notice thereof by advertisement, three different times in two newspapers, having the largest circulation, published in Baltimore county, and one in the city of
