

and the residue amongst those whom he may have summoned, and who may have aided in the same, to be determined and awarded by the justice of the peace.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 20, sec. 90.

110. Any person aggrieved by any judgment rendered against him by a justice, under section 108, may appeal therefrom to the circuit court for Talbot county, within the same time and upon the same terms prescribed for appeals from judgments of justices of the peace in other cases.

1876, ch. 218.

111. It shall not be lawful to haul a seine of any description whatever in the waters of the Choptank river and its tributaries, for the purpose of catching fish, from the twentieth day of May to the first day of August in each and every year.

Ibid.

112. Any person violating the preceding section, upon conviction thereof before a justice of the peace residing in any of the counties of Talbot, Dorchester or Caroline, opposite the shores where the offence is committed, shall be fined not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars for each offence, to be collected in the same manner and by the same process of law as other fines or small debts are collected.

Ibid.

114. Upon default in the payment of such fine, the seine or boat, or both, shall be liable to seizure, and upon ten days' notice being given, shall be sold, and a sufficiency of the proceeds of the sale shall be appropriated to the payment of the fines and costs, and the balance, if any, shall be paid over to the owner of said seine and boat; provided, however, that an appeal to the circuit court shall in all cases be allowed if demanded by the defendant within ten days from the date of judgment; and upon the filing of an approved appeal bond at the time of praying such appeal, execution upon such judgment shall be stayed as in ordinary cases before justices of the peace.
