

P L L, (1860,) art 20, sec 106.

140. They may determine upon and regulate all matters relating to the building of wharves in said town, regulate the moving of rafts, arks and boats, and prevent all nuisances and obstructions in the waters of the creek and harbor in front of the town.

1865, ch. 201.

141. They may open, close, grade and level streets and alleys, and remove all nuisances and obstructions from the same, and prevent encroachments thereon by building or otherwise; and if any person shall neglect or refuse to remove such obstructions or nuisances after being notified by said commissioners so to do, the said commissioners shall have authority to sell the same at public auction after ten days' public notice, to the highest bidder for cash or on credit; and the proceeds arising from such sales shall be paid over to the treasurer for the benefit of the town.

1876, ch. 170.

142. All the property of said town shall be vested in said commissioners, and they may collect all wharfage due and taxes levied by them as other taxes are collected.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 20, sec. 109.

143. They may lay out, mark and define the several streets in said town, may name them, and change the names at pleasure.

1876, ch. 170.

144. They may levy and collect taxes in said town not exceeding in any year fifty cents on the hundred dollars on the assessable property in said town, and shall once in three years appoint an assessor, who shall, under oath, value and assess the property in said town, in the same manner and with like authority as county assessors.

P. L. L. (1860,) art. 20, sec. 111.

145. If the owner of any property assessed shall feel aggrieved by such assessment, he may appeal to the commissioners, who may make such deduction therefrom as may seem just and reasonable to them.
