

town not covered by said plat. The waters of St. Michael's harbor west of a line draw from Parrott's point to Three Cedar point, are also made subject to the jurisdiction of the commissioners of said town.

1880, ch. 105.

177. It shall not be lawful for any person to enclose any of the streets, lanes or alleys, or any part of the streets, lanes or alleys, as laid down on the plat of said town of St. Michaels, under the penalty of twenty dollars for each and every offence, and five dollars for each and every day that such street, lane or alley, or any part of such street, lane or alley, shall remain in whole or in part enclosed.

Ibid.

178. The commissioners shall be three in number; and all citizens of said town of St. Michaels who have resided in said town three months next preceding the election and are qualified to vote for delegates to the general assembly, shall elect by ballot, on the first Monday in April in each year, between the hours of two and five o'clock P. M., one person, above the age of twenty-one years, and who has resided in the said town for over one year immediately preceding said election, a commissioner of said town, who shall serve for three years.

Ibid.

179. The commissioners of said town shall be judges of election, and every commissioner, before proceeding to hold an election, shall make oath before a duly authorized officer of the law, that he will faithfully and impartially perform the duties of judge of election, and permit every person to vote at such election who is qualified, and prevent any one from voting who is not qualified; and the judges shall, at the close of the polls, count the votes given to each candidate and publicly declare the result of said election, and cause the same to be entered in the town records; and the said judges shall also give to the commissioner elect a certificate in writing of his election, which certificate shall be recorded among the records of said town.
