

said county commissioners may require him to do so, present to them for their inspection an exact account of all his receipts and expenditures, and a true and full exhibit of all moneys that have come into his hands, and when and from whom, and for what purpose received, and shall perform such other duties as the county commissioners may require, and pertaining to said office of treasurer; and such treasurer shall receive, as full compensation for all services and duties required of and performed by him, such sum of money, not exceeding in the whole for any one year the amount of one thousand dollars, as the county commissioners may fix and allow, and payable as they may direct; and at the end or expiration of his term of office, such treasurer shall immediately transfer and deliver to his successor in office, all books, accounts, vouchers, papers of every kind relating to the duties of or connected with his office, and pay over all moneys received for said county that may then be in his custody, charge or control, belonging to said county, to such successor, or as the county commissioners may direct.

COUNTY TAX COLLECTORS.

42. If the county commissioners shall deem it conducive to the public interest to appoint a collector for each election district of said county, or several collectors, each collector for one or more of said districts, it shall be the duty of the several collectors of taxes so appointed, before entering upon the discharge of their duties, to give bond, conditioned for the faithful performance thereof, in such penalty and with such sureties as the county commissioners shall prescribe, and to pay over, under oath, to the treasurer of Allegany county, on the first Tuesday of the next month after the said taxes are placed in their hands for collection, and on the first Tuesday in each and every month thereafter, and oftener if required by the county commissioners, the amount collected by them for said county, until the collections are completed; and on failure to make such monthly or other payments, each delinquent collector may be removed from office by the county commissioners, and another appointed in his stead; and at the end of the time allowed for the collections aforesaid by said collectors, they, and each of them, shall make to the
