

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 20, sec. 189.

218. The said commissioners, after their election, shall assemble at some time and place, of which notice shall be given by a majority of their number, and appoint a clerk, who may or may not be a member of their own body, and who shall take an oath before some justice of the peace for Talbot county well and faithfully to discharge the duties of his office.

Ibid. sec. 190.

219. They shall also at the same time and place, choose one of their own number president of the board, who shall have the privilege of voting upon all matters before the board; and the clerk shall administer to each one of said commissioners, and to all other officers appointed by them, an oath well and faithfully to discharge the duties of their respective offices.

Ibid. sec. 196.

220. They may appoint a bailiff and all other necessary officers for the said town, prescribe their duties and fix their compensation, may require from their clerk and officers appointed by them a bond, in such penalty as they may determine, for the faithful performance of the duties of their respective offices, and may at any time remove said officers and appoint others in their place.

Ibid. sec. 197.

221. The clerk shall keep a full minute of all the proceedings of said commissioners in a well-bound book to be provided by them for that purpose, which shall always be open to inspection by any person interested.

Ibid. sec. 198.

222. The bailiff shall preserve order, keep the peace, serve process, abate nuisances, and execute all orders of the board of commissioners, and shall have power to command the peace, arrest offenders, collect moneys due the corporation, and do all such acts and perform such duties as may be ordained by the board of commissioners, as fully as a constable, within the limits of said town, and in matters pertaining to its government.
