

show the amount of money received by the county from all sources, and the entire amount expended for all purposes during the year; and a correct transcript of the aforesaid account, attested by his signature, shall at the close of each year be furnished to the county commissioners.

1876, ch. 179.

57. All documents, books and papers belonging to his office are declared to be the property and records of Baltimore county, and at all times shall be subject to the examination of the grand jury and county commissioners, or of any taxpayer of said county; and it shall be the duty of the grand jury at each session to appoint from their own body a committee to examine the books and accounts of the said treasurer, and to report to the circuit court the result of such examination.

Ibid.

58. The county commissioners shall appoint and furnish the treasurer an office in the court-house for the transaction of business, and the said office shall be open for that purpose each day of the year, Sundays and legal holidays excepted, from nine o'clock, A. M. until three o'clock, P. M., from the first day of November until the first day of April, and from nine o'clock, A. M. until five o'clock, P. M. for the remainder of the year.

CORONERS, INQUESTS AND DEAD BODIES.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec. 91.

59. The fees of coroners in said county shall be as follows: for each separate coroner's inquest held by any coroner or justice of the peace acting as coroner, four dollars and seventeen cents; for a coffin, two dollars and fifty cents; and for digging grave and burying body, two dollars and fifty cents.

Ibid. sec. 92.

60. The coroners of said county shall hold an inquest over all persons found dead in said county, where the manner and cause of such death shall not be clearly known as accidental or in the course of nature.