

forty-eight and three-quarters degrees, east thirteen hundred and sixty feet, to the west margin of the Washington county railroad, and thirty-three feet distant from the middle thereof; thence along said railroad, and thirty-three feet distant from the centre-line thereof, south ten and one-half degrees, west twenty-two hundred and twenty feet; thence crossing said railroad, south fifty-eight and one-half degrees, east one hundred and fifteen feet, to the middle of the Hagerstown and Sharpsburg turnpike, and at the end of the second line of this survey; then, reversing the second and first lines of this survey, north thirty-one and one-half degrees, east fifteen hundred and eighty-two feet, north three degrees, east four hundred and eighty-three feet, to the beginning stone marked "H;" provided, however, that for sanitary and police purposes, the mayor and council of Hagerstown shall have and exercise full power and control for a distance of one-half mile in every direction from said corporate limits.

1884, ch. 58.

155. The said town is divided into five wards, the bounds and limits of which are defined to be as follows: for ward number one: commencing in the centre of the public square and running along the middle of Washington street, westwardly two hundred and seventy-six feet; thence southward through the middle of an alley, two hundred and seventy-six feet; thence westward along the middle of an alley to the middle of Prospect street; thence southward thirty-seven feet; thence westward through the middle of an alley to the middle of Walnut street; thence along the middle of Walnut street northeastwardly to the middle of Washington street; thence along the middle of Washington street and Washington street extended to the western boundary of the town; thence northward with the boundary of the town eight hundred and fifty-one feet; thence eastward along the boundary of the town four hundred and ten feet; thence northward along the boundary of the town two hundred and eighty feet; thence south-eastward by a straight line to the mouth of an alley; thence along the middle of said alley north of Washington street eastward to the alley running from Washington street to Franklin street along the east side of the Baldwin house; thence northward along the middle of the last-mentioned alley to the middle of Franklin street; thence along the middle of Franklin street to