

CRIER AND BAILIFFS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec. 95.

65. The judges of the circuit court for said county shall allow to the crier of said court such compensation as they may think proper, not exceeding two dollars per day, while attending said court during its sittings in equity.

Ibid. sec. 96.

66. The county commissioners shall annually levy such sum of money as will be sufficient to pay the crier of the circuit court for the next ensuing year.

Ibid. sec. 97.

67. At the end of each quarter of every year, the clerk of the circuit court shall certify to the treasurer of the county the amount due said crier, and the treasurer shall forthwith pay the same.

1882, ch. 340

68. The bailiffs of the circuit court shall be paid a salary of fifty dollars per month each in lieu of all fees.

Ibid.

69. The said salary shall be due and payable by the county commissioners on the first Tuesday of each and every month.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec. 98.

70. The county commissioners shall annually levy such sum of money as will be sufficient to pay the bailiffs of the circuit court for said county, for the next ensuing year, which shall be paid in the same manner and upon the same evidence as the crier is directed to be paid.

DEER.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 3, sec. 99.

71. No person shall shoot or otherwise destroy any wild deer in Baltimore county from the first day of January to the first day of September, under the penalty of five dollars for every deer so killed or destroyed, to be recovered before a justice of the peace for the said county as other debts, one-half to the informer and the other half to the use of the county.
