

EASTERN-AVENUE BRIDGE.

1882, ch. 199.

72. It shall be unlawful for any person to shoot a gun, guns, or other firearms, from and off Eastern-avenue bridge, crossing Back river, in Baltimore county.

1882, ch. 199.

73. Upon information given upon oath or affirmation to any justice of the peace of said county, or to the circuit court for said county, of any violation of the preceding section, said justice of the peace or said circuit court shall issue a warrant for the arrest of the offender, and for the seizure of the gun or other firearms in the possession of such offender, to be directed to the sheriff, or to any constable of Baltimore county, or other officer authorized to make arrests, or to any citizen of said county; and it shall be the duty of any sheriff, constable or other officer authorized to make arrests, or of any citizen, upon the receipt of said warrant, to arrest any person violating the preceding section, and to seize any gun or other firearms used in violation of said section, and to bring such offender before a justice of the peace of said county, or before the circuit court for said county, and upon conviction the said offender shall be held guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the jail of said county for not less than twenty days nor more than forty days, one-half of all such fines to be paid to the informer and the other half to be paid for the use of the public schools of said county; and the said offender shall forfeit the gun or other firearms seized as aforesaid, and the same shall be sold and the proceeds of such sale shall be paid for the use of the schools of said county; and in case any such offender shall fail to pay the fine that may be imposed on him for violating said section, he shall be confined in the jail of Baltimore county for a period not less than twenty days nor more than forty days, or until such fine be paid.

Ibid.

74. Any person who may feel aggrieved by any judgment rendered by a justice of the peace, under the two preceding sections, shall have the right to appeal to the circuit court for the county, upon the conditions, and subject to all the regulations now pro-
