

of the council, with his approval or disapproval. Any ordinance returned by the mayor, with his disapproval, shall not become a law unless subsequently passed at the first regular meeting thereafter by a four-fifths vote of the council.

1884, ch. 58.

175. The mayor and council shall have power to compel all turnpike companies whose roads or any part thereof lie within the limits of the town, to perform all the duties and obligations imposed upon them by their respective charters, or the laws of this State, upon such parts thereof as are within the limits of the town, and shall have power to enter into arrangements with the said turnpike companies in relation to the grading, paving and repairing of the parts of their respective roads lying within the limits of the town.

Ibid.

176. The several turnpike companies owning roads running into the town may cede to the town such parts of their roads as lie within the limits of the town, upon such terms as may be agreed upon between the mayor and council and said companies, and the same when ceded shall in all respects be subject to the same regulations as the public streets of the town.

Ibid.

177. The mayor and council shall have the right to condemn the parts of all public highways lying within the limits of the town for public use, and to open, widen, straighten or close up the same, in whole or in part; provided, free access is allowed to all public roads running to the limits of the town through the highways of the town.

Ibid.

178. For the enforcement of the town ordinances the police justices shall have all the power of ordering arrests and summoning witnesses that is now vested in them by law, and they shall be entitled to demand and receive the same fees as in other criminal proceedings; but the mayor and council may determine and fix an annual salary to be paid to said justices quarterly, and in such case they shall impose no justices' fees in the trial of cases before them. Each of said justices shall be furnished with copies of the ordinances of the town, and each shall keep a separate
