

docket for corporation cases, and therein record and make regular entries of his proceedings in all such cases, setting forth the fine or imprisonment imposed, and the amount of costs, and he shall submit said docket to the inspection of any person who may request to see the same; and upon demand of any person interested shall deliver a copy of any judgment rendered by him. It shall be the duty of each of said justices to make out a summarized statement of all corporation cases tried before him, with the fines and costs therein collected, which statement shall be submitted quarterly to the council, after being sworn to before the mayor. Upon the request of the council the said justices shall produce their dockets and may be placed under oath and interrogated as to the entries therein. They shall pay over to the tax collector, quarterly, all fines collected by them.

179. If either of the justices of the peace appointed by the mayor and council neglects to discharge any of the duties imposed upon him by this sub-title of this article, or refuses to pay over the fines collected by him, as herein directed, he shall be liable to indictment in the circuit court for Washington county, and upon conviction he shall be fined the sum of fifty dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for a term not exceeding three months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

Ibid.

180. From any judgment rendered by either of the police justices in the enforcement of the ordinances of the town, an appeal shall lie by the person aggrieved, to the circuit court for Washington county; provided, the appeal is taken within three days after the rendering of judgment; and provided the person aggrieved shall enter into good and sufficient bond for the faithful prosecution of the appeal, and for the payment of all costs in case the judgment be affirmed; but no appeal shall stay process or execution upon judgment, unless a bond be given as above provided.

Ibid.

181. Before any policeman, regular or special, shall act as such, he shall take and subscribe before the mayor, in a book to be kept for that purpose, the following oath: "I do swear (or
