

1867, ch. 272.

243. For any and every license thus granted, the said clerk shall demand and be entitled to receive as follows: for a license to employ not more than one team of not less than three horses or mules, the sum of eighty dollars; for a license to employ not more than one team of not more than two horses or mules, the sum of sixty dollars; for a license to employ not more than one team of more than one horse or mule, the sum of forty dollars.

Ibid.

244. Any person violating the provisions of section 242, upon conviction thereof, shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars, which fine shall be collectible as small debts are now collected, one-half to the informer, and the other half to be applied to the use of the public schools of said county.

JERUSALEM.

1870, ch. 452.

245. The citizens of the town of Jerusalem, in Washington county, are a body corporate, by the name of "The Burgess and Commissioners of Jerusalem," and by that name may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal.

Ibid.

246. The legal voters of the State, of the age of twenty-one years and upwards, who have resided in said town twelve months next preceding the election, shall elect by ballot, on the first Monday in May in each year, a burgess, assistant burgess, and five commissioners for said town, having the same qualifications in all respects as the voters.

Ibid.

247. All elections shall be held and conducted as shall from time to time be directed by the by-laws of the corporation, not contrary to this charter.

Ibid.

248. If at any election for burgess, assistant burgess and commissioners, any two or more persons shall have an equality of votes, so that no choice shall be made, a second election shall be held, after not less than ten days' notice, and so on until a choice shall be made.
