

1870, ch. 452.

259. If the owner of any house, lot or part of a lot where such levelling, paving or repairing shall be directed, shall not reside in the town, the tenant or person occupying such house, lot or part of a lot, shall cause the same to be done, and the money so expended, under the direction of the corporation, shall be allowed by the owners and deducted from the rent then due or to become due; and if the tenant or person occupying such lot shall refuse or neglect to level, pave or mend the same, agreeably to the ordinance of the corporation, the same may be done by the corporation, and the expenses thereof, with costs, shall be charged to and collected from the owner by distress and sale of such property.

Ibid.

260. The burgess shall be treasurer of the corporation, and shall give bond to the corporation, with security, to be approved by the commissioners, in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer; and he shall receive and pay away monies according to the ordinances of the corporation.

Ibid.

261. All violations of the ordinances for the peace and good order of said town shall be punished by a fine not exceeding twenty dollars, to be imposed by the burgess or by any justice of the peace for Washington county; said fine to be collected according to the provisions of the code of public general laws.

JURORS.

P L. L., (1860,) art. 21, sec. 201.

262. The county commissioners shall levy a sufficient sum, in advance, to pay the jurors attending the circuit court, promptly at the close of each jury term thereof.

Ibid. sec. 202.

263. Whenever any person shall present to the collector of said county an order from the clerk of the circuit court for his attendance as a juror, he shall pay to such person, or his order, the amount due him, after deducting therefrom all charges he may have against such juror.
