

P L. L., (1860,) art. 21, sec. 203.

264. The clerk of the circuit court shall furnish each juror with an order for the amount of his pay.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

1886, ch. 20.

265. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables for Washington county, to be appointed for the election districts in said county, as follows: Number one, two justices of the peace and two constables; number two, three justices of the peace and two constables; for numbers three, seventeen, twenty-one and twenty-two, constituting the town of Hagerstown and vicinity, eight justices of the peace and six constables; number four, two justices of the peace and two constables; number five, three justices of the peace and two constables; number six, two justices of the peace and two constables; number seven, two justices of the peace and two constables; number eight, two justices of the peace and two constables; number nine, two justices of the peace and two constables; number ten, two justices of the peace and two constables; number eleven, two justices of the peace and two constables; number twelve, two justices of the peace and two constables; number thirteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; number fourteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; number fifteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; number sixteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; number eighteen, two justices of the peace and two constables; number twenty, two justices of the peace and two constables; number twenty-three, two justices of the peace and two constables.

1886, ch. 187.

266. In all suits before justices of the peace in Washington county, the defendant shall be sued in the district in which he resides, unless the contract was made or damage done in another district of said county, or unless the parties agreed to perform the contract in another district, in which cases suit may be brought in such other district.

Ibid.

267. In case any defendant be sued in any other district than his own, on his written or personal application to the justice of