

1872, ch 251.

295. The burgess and commissioners may take up and impound any stock running at large in said town, whether belonging to the citizens of the said town or not, under such regulations as they may prescribe; and the sheriff of Washington county shall receive and safe keep in the jail of said county, all persons who shall be committed by the burgess and commissioners to said jail for a breach or a violation of any of the ordinances of the said corporation, according to the time of commitment, and in the same manner and under the same regulations as persons committed for a violation of the laws of this State.

LEITERSBURG.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 21, sec. 209.

296. The citizens of Leitersburg, in Washington county, are a body corporate by the name of "The Burgess and Commissioners of Leitersburg," and by that name may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal.

Ibid sec 210.

297. The bounds of the town of Leitersburg shall be as follows: Commencing at a poplar tree, on the road leading from Leitersburg to Smithburg, near a stable belonging to Jeremiah Slick; thence running with a straight line to a stable near the house occupied by Daniel Lawmanson in the year eighteen hundred and fifty-three; thence with a straight line to a spring on or near a lot belonging to Nathan McDowell, on the road leading from Leitersburg to Green Castle; thence with a straight line to a blacksmith shop occupied by G. W. Lantz in said year, belonging to George Poe; thence with a straight line to the beginning.

Ibid. sec. 211.

298. The male citizens of Leitersburg, of the age of twenty-years and upwards, who have resided twelve months in said town next preceding the election, shall elect by ballot, on the first Monday in April in each year, a burgess, assistant burgess and three commissioners, of the age of not less than twenty-one years, who shall have resided in said town twelve months next preceding the election.
