

P. L. L., (1860,) art 21, sec. 218.

305. The clerk shall enter all ordinances passed by the burgess and commissioners in a book to be kept by him for that purpose, which shall be open at all times to the inspection of any person interested; and copies of all ordinances shall be set up in the most public places in the town.

Ibid sec. 219.

306. The burgess and commissioners shall have power to make all such by-laws and ordinances as they may deem expedient for the comfort, health, convenience and prosperity of the town and its inhabitants, the prevention or removal of nuisances, preservation of health, and suppression of vice and immorality in said town.

Ibid sec. 220.

307. They may lay an equal tax on the property in the town, to such amount as they may from time to time deem necessary for the purposes of the corporation.

Ibid sec. 221.

308. They may appoint a collector to collect said tax, and may fix his term of office, responsibility and compensation; and the said collector shall have the same power to distrain for said tax as the collector of county taxes has for county taxes, and shall pay the same to the said burgess and commissioners.

Ibid. sec. 222.

309. The burgess shall be treasurer of the corporation and shall give bond thereto, with security, to be approved by the commissioners, in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duty as treasurer; and he shall receive and pay away all moneys agreeably to the ordinances of the corporation.

Ibid. sec. 223.

310. The burgess and commissioners may direct by ordinance all or any of the footways in said town to be paved or repaired, with any materials they may think proper, at the expense of the proprietors of the different lots in front of which the same shall be done.
